No matter the reason for your move, this three bedroom semi-detached house represents great value for money and should be top of your viewing wish list for this coming week. Occupying a South facing plot that fans out to the rear, this attractive home offers some fantastic proportions throughout - there are three separate reception rooms within the property that include a spacious living room, a dining room that opens to the modern kitchen as well as a conservatory to the rear accessed via the living room. All three bedrooms are a good size and are supported at first floor level by a larger than average three-piece family bathroom. Another key benefit to this home is the generous out-house area that includes both a utility space & separate garden storage for the lawn mover & patio furniture. Offered to the market with no onward chain and off street parking to the front, there is a lot of house on offer for your money.
