Bedrooms: 1 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 1

Set within an attractive period conversion, this well-presented ground floor flat combines character features with practical modern living, making it an ideal choice for first-time buyers, down-sizers, or investors alike. The accommodation includes a front aspect living room with feature fireplace, a double bedroom, a spacious internal shower room and a galley-style kitchen leading out to the rear access. Externally, the property enjoys its own rear courtyard with gated access (leading to the resident's parking) as well as a beautiful mature garden that will be wonderful extension to the property during the warmer months. Offered with no onward chain, this home is ready for immediate occupation and offers a rare opportunity to secure a characterful property with outdoor space. Well located for local amenities and transport links, it's a home that blends charm, convenience and lifestyle appeal.
