Les Carroz

GRAND MASSIF

An all-season paradise

With 265 kilometres of slopes stretching over 40,000 hectares, as well as numerous fun zones and freestyle areas, the Grand Massif is the promise of endless ever-changing experiences.

Whether you're a thrill-seeker or a contemplative in search of peace and quiet, there's no room for boredom here.

But once the white powder has disappeared beneath your feet, it's time to rediscover a whole new world of nature. As the seasons go by, a whole range of activities awaits you: Mountain biking, white-water rafting, hiking, paragliding.

A genuine "Garden of Eden" for lovers of fresh air and beautiful getaways.

A vibrant, family-friendly natural setting

Located at the gateway to the Grand Massif, Les Carroz is a true paradise in a natural setting halfway between Geneva and Annecy.

With its charming chalets, authentic village atmosphere and seasonal events, Les Carroz is a captivating place to recharge your batteries and enjoy the natural beauty that surrounds it.

*Natural
