The internal accommodation briefly comprises: Entrance hall with attractive herringbone finish flooring and stairs leading to the first-floor landing. To the right, there is access to a ground floor WC, while to the left sits a spacious lounge featuring front aspect windows, a feature fireplace, and French doors opening out to the rear garden.

To the right of the hallway is a generous open-plan kitchen and dining room, enjoying dual aspect windows and a continuation of the parquet herringbone flooring. The kitchen is well appointed with a range of wall and base units, worktop surfaces, and integrated appliances including an oven, hob, and extractor fan. A rear-facing window offers a pleasant outlook over the garden, and from here there is access into a separate utility room. The utility offers additional storage, matching surfaces, a sink, space for further appliances, and an external door leading outside.

To the first floor, the landing gives access to two well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a walk-in wardrobe and a modern en-suite shower room. Also on this level is a fully tiled family bathroom comprising a bath, separate shower, washbasin, and WC.

Stairs then rise to the second floor, where there are two further double bedrooms, both featuring Velux windows and ample natural light.

Externally, the front of the property offers a neat and well-maintained garden. To the rear is private enclosed garden, mainly paved patio with a lawned section, covered seating with a pizza oven and a detached garage provides useful additional storage, with a further 2 allocated spaces available. The current owners have planning permission and drawings to add an orangery to the rear garden area which can be made available to potential buyers.
