VIBRANT COMMUNITIES

LATIMER
by Clarion Housing Group

CREATED BY LATIMER

Latimer is the private 'for sale' development arm of Clarion Housing Group, developing private homes in thriving, mixed use communities.

Clarion Housing Group is the UK's largest provider of affordable housing, with over 125,000 homes and more than 350,000 residents across the country. As part of Clarion Housing Group, Latimer has an unrivalled balance sheet with net assets of over £7bn and a turnover of close to £1bn per annum. For the past 100 years we've been building communities that work for the long term.

The Clarion story started with William Sutton, a 19th century entrepreneur who gifted his entire fortune (£230 million in today's money) to build affordable housing across major cities in the UK. We have been delivering on his legacy ever since. The majority of homes we build will always be for affordable tenures, but building homes for private sale is crucial for our business to develop both mixed sustainable communities and recycling any profits we make from private sales back into building and maintaining more affordable homes.

PLACES TO LIVE LIFE IN FULL

What sets Latimer apart is our long-term commitment to the people who live in our homes. We don't build and then simply move onto the next site; we create places for families to thrive and all of our work is built on strong financial foundations, meaning we are a dependable partner.

We also want every Latimer community to be socially and environmentally sustainable. That means a consistent commitment to high quality and low carbon properties.

Our model is very different to other developers. We don't have shareholders, so we don't face short-term demands to make profit at any cost. Instead, we are driven by our commitment to quality, community and places that succeed.

As a group we have a committed development pipeline of over 16,000 new homes and have ambitions to become a top ten home builder in the UK over the next 5-7 years. If you buy a Latimer home you will be buying into an organisation with more than 100 years of history and an enduring commitment to building communities that succeed.

The Cocoa Works

YORK

Built by Joseph Rowntree in the early 1890s, this was York's famous 'garden factory', where open space and education facilities supported the wellbeing of factory workers and their families. The site is of historical significance to York, and this sensitive restoration will bring life back to a building that for years was central to the economy of the city.

A sixth floor roof extension provides fantastic views, whilst the refreshed layout is sympathetic to the building's previous life as a factory.

WELCOME TO MANCHESTER

The popularity of Manchester continues to grow, with work opportunities at Media City, a dynamic city centre and the region's five universities attracting people in.

A high proportion of people who study in Manchester, stay on to live here after graduation, helping to make the city a young and vibrant destination, with entrepreneurs and big brand businesses both making the most of opportunities.

The population is expected to grow to 635,000 people by 2025, from 553,000 today. 100,000 people will be living and working in the city centre, where the options for high quality residential living continue to grow.

The redevelopment of Terminal 2 at Manchester Airport will strengthen its position as the largest UK airport outside of London. While the city also pursues its ambition to be carbon neutral by 2038, eight years ahead of the UK's national commitment.

ENRICHING STUDENT EXPERIENCE

The University of Manchester

Manchester's five universities – The University of Manchester, University of Salford, Manchester Metropolitan University, University of Bolton and University Academy 92 – have over 100,000 students enrolled in courses and produce around 36,000 graduates every year.

New students quickly discover that Manchester is an easy city to get around, with trams and cycle lanes encouraging people away from cars. The city has a lot to offer, from history and culture to leisure, shopping, theatre, cinema and live music. You can enjoy a different experience every day.

The universities themselves are world class, with well-respected degree courses in all subject areas helping to build careers and industries in the city and beyond.

The University of Salford is the only university to have a campus at Media City. Its facilities have been designed with industry to create a forward thinking educational space that empowers interdisciplinary and collaborative learning.

WITH CULTURE TO MATCH

Old Trafford Stadium

Ask any football fan and it will be Manchester City or Manchester United that is referenced as the city's most important cultural feature. World famous Old Trafford, Manchester United's football ground, is just a short journey over the water from Media City. You can sometimes hear the fans singing on match day.

Native Youth, a local Manchester brand

The culture and history of Manchester includes much more than football, however. Manchester was at the centre of the industrial revolution and the quick growing cotton and textiles trade. An apt pre-cursor to the burgeoning fashion design industry that exists in the city today. Make sure you see the latest creations from local designers at Manchester Fashion Week.

Manchester is also renowned for its impressive musical heritage and famous venues, with the Haçienda nightclub putting the city firmly on the party map. Boy bands, indie bands and top international DJs have all emanated from this creative and very welcoming party city.

UK WIDE CONNECTIONS

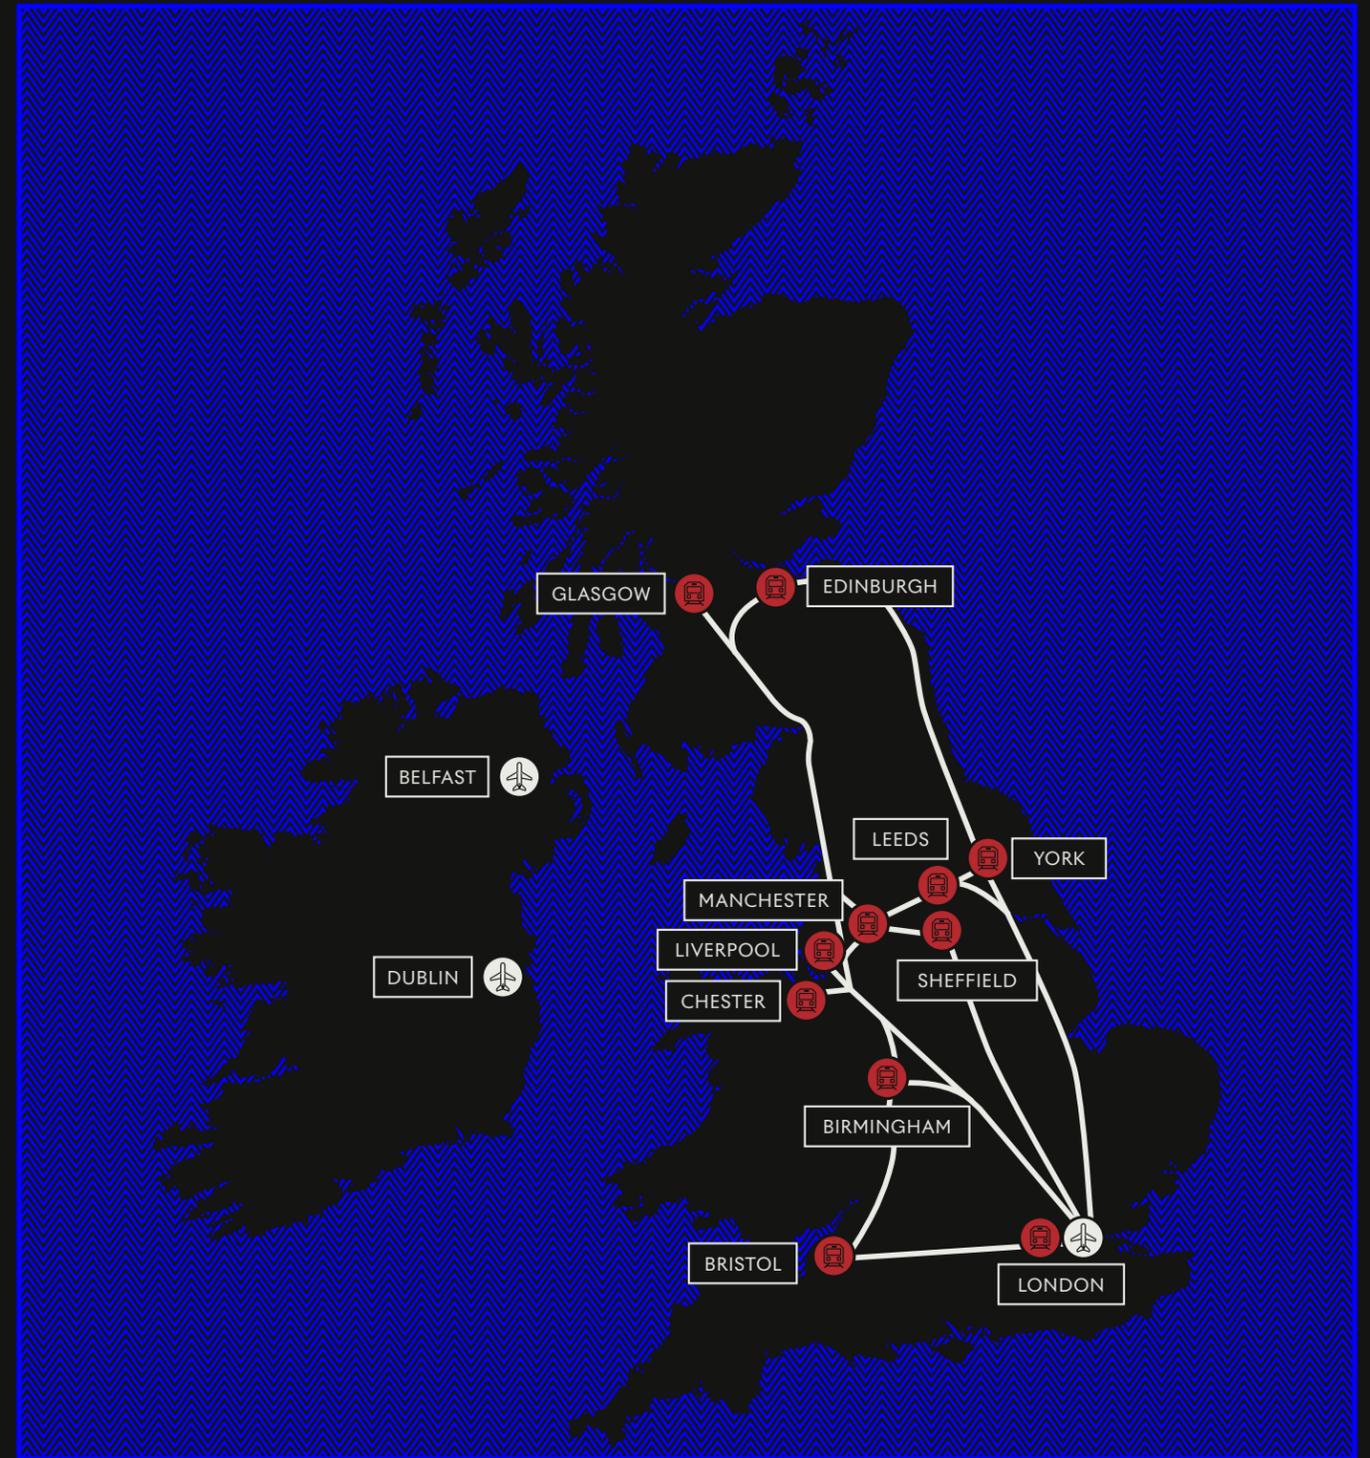

Manchester is an extremely well-connected northern hub, offering fast train travel times into all major surrounding cities, including Leeds, Sheffield and Liverpool, as well as a quick commute into London Euston.

Travel over the border into Scotland's two leading cities, Edinburgh and Glasgow, takes just over three hours by train, while you also have the option to fly further north from Manchester Airport. A flight to Dublin takes just under an hour.

The Peak District National Park is under an hour away by car and offers an invigorating day out from the city. The park covers more than 550 square hectares, has stunning landscapes to enjoy throughout the year, as well as cycleways, varied wildlife, stately homes and landmarks to discover.

MANCHESTER AIRPORT TO MEDIA CITY

Travelling is simple from Media City to Manchester Airport, it's just a 19 minutes drive by car or you can take the convenient journey via Metrolink.
