Outside

The property is accessed via a double driveway, each side secured with traditional five-bar farm gates. To the left, a block-paved driveway extends to the side of the house, leading to a wooden-structured garage with double wooden doors. On the right, a paved hard standing area provides ideal space for the storage of a caravan or camper. The garden features a well-maintained lawn and a paved patio area, all bordered by mature, living laurel hedging for privacy. Raised flower beds add color and charm, while a paved pathway leads to the front entrance, enhancing the property's welcoming appeal.

To the side there is a wooden gate providing access to the rear, paved patio garden which offers an inviting outdoor space, complete with an overhead canopy providing shade and privacy. A stone retaining wall adds structure and character, complemented by well-stocked flower beds filled with mature plants, shrubs, and bushes, creating a vibrant and secluded setting.

Garage

Wooden built structure with double wooden gates to the front providing access.
