Signature North East proudly presents this charming three-bedroom end-of-terrace home nestled on the coveted Front Street in Newbiggin-By-The-Sea.

Constructed from stone, it features modern, spacious rooms throughout, along with a secluded rear yard and charming front garden, typical of this style of property.

Newbiggin-By-The-Sea boasts an array of local amenities, excellent transportation links, and a stunning coastline just moments away. Numerous footpaths for coastal and countryside exploration are conveniently located within a short walking distance of the property.

Upon entry, you are greeted by a generously sized entrance hallway, providing access to the entirety of the ground floor. A spacious lounge adorned with a beautiful bay window sits at the front of the property, while a modern kitchen with wall, base, and drawer units and space for dining, lies at the rear. Completing the ground floor level are a practical utility room and WC.

Ascending the first floor, you'll discover the master bedroom spanning the property's width and a stylish bathroom with a feature bath and walk-in shower. The second floor comprises two additional well-proportioned bedrooms.

Externally, the property showcases a delightful front garden and a recently refurbished private rear yard, with an all-weather seating area.

This exquisite freehold residence has been meticulously maintained throughout, offering prospective buyers a modern and adaptable home situated in a highly sought-after location.
