Nestled gracefully in North Shields, Signature North East unveils a splendid 6-bedroom terraced home, a captivating fusion of historic elegance and contemporary sophistication. Dating back to 1880, this residence seamlessly weaves the charm of its original features into modern comforts, offering a timeless and luxurious living experience. Ideally situated near Newcastle city centre, the coastline, Tynemouth, and the bustling fish quay, it provides convenient access to exceptional dining, reputable schools, and efficient transportation links.

Enter the grand central hallway, leading to a spacious living room with a bay window and a delightful fireplace. Stately French doors open into the family room with its fireplace and doors that open into a luminous orangery/dining space with skylight windows—a versatile space for daily living and entertaining. The recently installed kitchen, with a central island, underfloor heating, and integrated appliances, stands as a testament to modern convenience. Completing the ground floor, the tastefully decorated dining room with a bay window adds allure with yet another captivating fireplace.

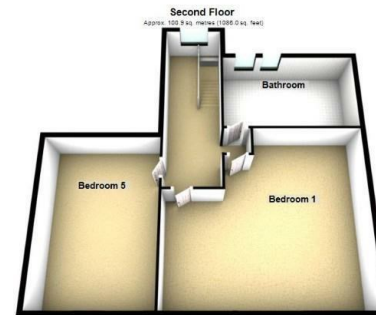

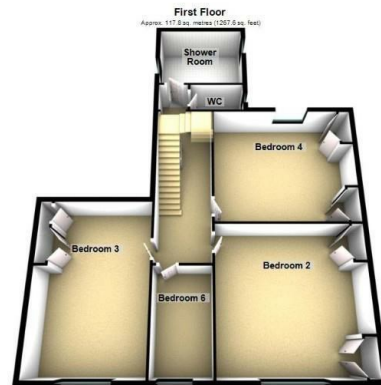

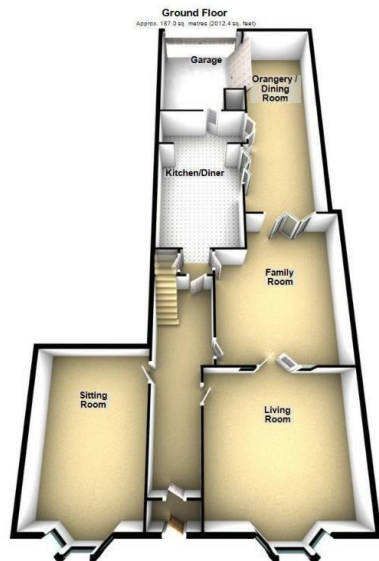

Venture to the first floor, where four generously sized bedrooms await. A well-appointed bathroom with a toilet, shower and underfloor heating adds practical luxury, accompanied by an additional, separate W.C. Ascend further to the second floor, where two additional large bedrooms beckon, joined by a modern family bathroom exuding elegance with underfloor heating, a bathtub, walk-in shower, his and her hand basins, and a W.C. Original charm meets contemporary allure throughout this meticulously crafted home.

Externally, the spacious, south-facing front garden unfolds as a tranquil retreat, featuring a secluded tiled area, perfect for outdoor seating. Convenience is paramount, with off-street parking via a garage to the rear and permit on-street parking to the front. Embrace refined living in this North Shields gem—a residence where history, style, and comfort converge seamlessly.
