The Property

An attractive and truly charming 3 bedroom Grade II Listed cottage of character, sitting on a generous plot and benefitting from a detached annexe. Occupying a wonderful position located in this picturesque village nestled in rolling South Cambridgeshire Countryside.

The Setting

Located in a picturesque English parish village situated in the southernmost tip of Cambridgeshire, tucked between the Hertfordshire village of Barley and the Essex village of Chrishall approximately 4 miles east of the popular market town of Royston, 8 miles from the medieval market town of Saffron Walden, and 15 miles from the famous city of Cambridge. Great Chishill boasts many picturesque houses, a stunning mill dating back to 1592, and a lovely public house, The Pheasant, offering a warm, welcoming atmosphere, traditional food, and a wide selection of fine wines and ales as well as being the highest pub in Cambridgeshire. There are many clubs, societies and things to do, including the Great Chishill Cycle Club, bowls and bell ringing at the beautiful Grade II Listed St Swithun's church. The village's proximity to Royston means that residents have access to the town's many other amenities, such as the mainline train station offering regular fast services to both Cambridge and London Kings Cross. There is also a leisure centre, sports clubs, dentist's and doctor surgeries, and highly regarded schools for all ages. The A1M and M11 are within a 15-minute drive via the A10/A505, and London Stansted and Luton Airports are both 30-minutes away.
