DESCRIPTION

16-20 Middle Gate, Newark, is a 3,750sqft investment grade row of 6 ground floor and first floor retail units with a variety of use classes stretching from cafe, restaurant, jazz bar and butchery. Predominately two-storey with an exception of three-storey offices in the central aspect, Middle Gate is sold entirely vacant with potential for residential conversion or asset management avenues. The 6 units form an L shape wrapping into Boar Lane and is built of brick elevations surmounted by pitch tiled roofing.

LOCATION

16-20 Middle Gate, Newark is set on Middle Gate high street and partially onto Boar Lane, with a highly prominent frontage along the row of retail units. Set within the town centre, Newark-on-Trent is a small town of 6 square miles within the Nottinghamshire county and servicing a population of 30,000 and historically served as a major inland port. The A1 carriageway bypasses the town, with Nottingham City just 20 miles south-west.
