Attractive Colonnade-Style 1930s Detached House

Approached via a block-paved carriage driveway with a garage/workshop and access to both sides of the property, this spacious home offers stunning sea views and views across the South Downs, with many attractive features including oak floors, Art Deco fireplaces, feature windows, a first floor terrace and a westerly-facing rear garden which backs onto open fields and the South Downs National Park.

The property has been stylishly updated and offers well-proportioned rooms, the ground floor comprising entrance hall, a triple aspect living room with French doors onto a covered terrace, a dual aspect modern Shaker-style kitchen with oak work surfaces and underfloor heating, and a separate dining room - again with a dual aspect, and bay window with doors out to the private westerly garden.

The attractive Deco-style stairs lead to the first floor with four double bedrooms, all with sea views. The two front bedrooms have access onto a terrace with views over Saltdean - one having a dual aspect and the other having built-in wardrobes and currently being used as a dressing room. The two bedrooms to the rear have views towards Rottingdean, one having a dual aspect and bay window. A family bathroom completes the first floor accommodation, with corner bath and separate shower enclosure.

The westerly aspect garden has two patio entertaining areas, one being raised with seating area, and a lawned garden with shrub and flower borders.

The Saltdean Lido with open-air swimming pool, gym, cafe and restaurant is within a short walk, as are the beach and undercliff walk and local shops. The neighbouring historic village of Rottingdean has an array of amenities including a Post Office, butcher, greengrocer and Tesco Express, as well as a variety of cafes, restaurants and traditional pubs. The area is well served for buses and is located approximately 5 miles from Brighton city centre.
