Guide price £2,150,000

A Delightful Detached Period Property Believed To Date From The Late 17th Century With Later Additions, In Secluded Gardens & Grounds Of Approximately 4.5 Acres With Tennis Court & Heated Swimming Pool.

Rectory Cottage perfectly captures the timeless charm of a historic home. The main living area features a stunning inglenook fireplace, complemented by an abundance of exposed timbers that add warmth and charm throughout. The current owners have thoughtfully designed a superb bespoke hand made open-plan Kitchen, Living, and Dining Room on the eastern side of the cottage, creating a bright and inviting space perfect for modern family life and entertaining. Additional flexible spaces include a cozy Snug/TV Room and a further spacious reception room.

Outside, formal gardens surround the Cottage, with expanses of sweeping lawns, perennial shrubs and hundreds of spring bulbs. The outdoor living experience is enhanced by a heated swimming pool with paved surround and delightful al fresco dining space with pergola. To the southeast lies a versatile studio/office and beyond this, an all-weather tennis court. On the western side the expansive bluebell wood showcases a magical decked treehouse, with the enchanting setting completed by an orchard, a traditional working well, a cricket net, and direct private access into the adjoining deer park.

Quiet privacy and security are assured by a set of wooden electric gates and a long private driveway, setting the house well back from the road. The driveway culminates in a generous parking area equipped with an electric car charging point and a substantial double garage block, which includes useful loft space for additional storage.

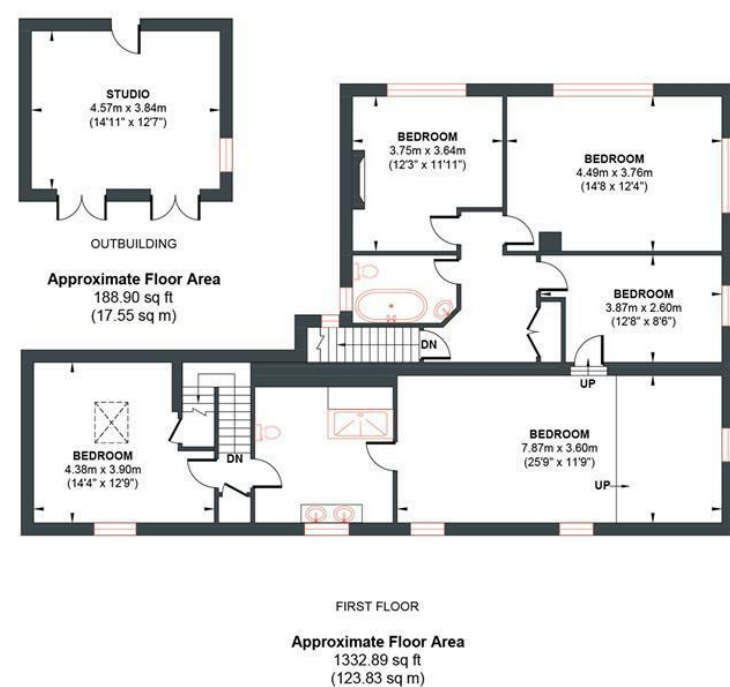

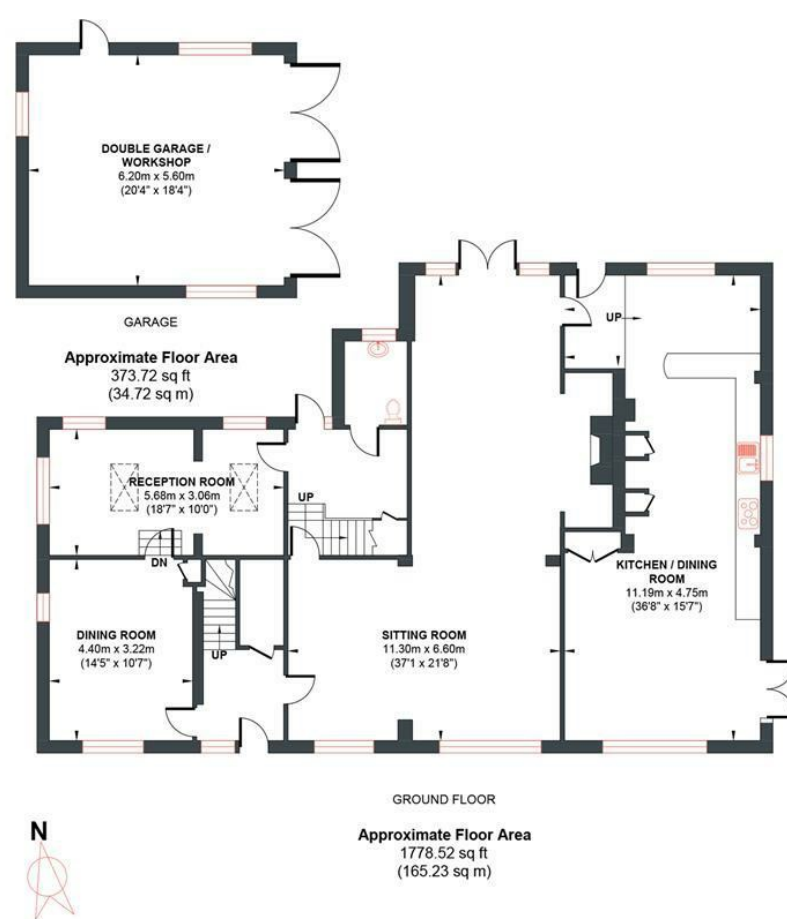

Entrance Hall, Impressive 'L' Shaped Sitting Room with Inglenook Fireplace, Superb Kitchen / Living / Dining Room, Snug / TV Room, Further Reception Room, Cloakroom, Master Bedroom with Ensuite Plus Raised Lounge Area And Possible Dressing Room, 4 Further Bedrooms, Re Fitted Family Bathroom.
