Nuneham Courtenay, OX44

Reconfigured and renovated by the current owners, this Grade II listed cottage offers a wealth of period features and a beautifully finished family home. The attention to detail is apparent throughout and the property has a wonderfully inviting feel from the moment you enter. The entrance to the side leads you into the open plan kitchen/ dining room with excellent natural light and a wood burning stove as a stunning focal feature, the kitchen is fully fitted and benefits from a separate cloakroom. The sitting room presents the exposed beams, the beautiful open fireplace and open staircase to the first floor. There are two double bedrooms, one with an ensuite shower room and family bathroom on the first floor. The second floor offers a further double bedroom. To the exterior is a private driveway, separate garage and rear garden, laid mainly to lawn spanning c.0.3 acres with mature trees and views to the farm land beyond. There is a separate summerhouse to the rear of the plot with power and a further wood burning stove creating a wonderful space for working from home or simply additional living space, enjoying views of the garden and trees.

Situation

Nuneham Courtenay is just c.5 miles south of Oxford and enjoys easy access into the city with Harcourt Arboretum on the doorstep offering ten acres of woodland and thirty seven acres of flower fields. A wonderful place to enjoy nature at its best and the Bluebell season is renowned and brings tourists from all over the world to see its natural beauty. There is a wonderful pub in Toot Baldon less than a mile from the village, Sainsburys Heyford Hill is the nearest supermarket and the neighboring villages Dorchester-on-Thames and the market town Wallingford are with a seven mile radius offering further amenities, shops, cafes and restaurants. There is a regular bus service running through the village providing access to Oxford, Wallingford and Reading.
