

Charles Street, Leicester, LE1 1LB

Property Description

This stylish one bedroom apartment is perfectly located in the heart of Leicester City centre, with a wealth of trendy restaurants, bars, shops and other amenities just a stones throw away. The Foister Building is a former hosiery factory which was sympathetically converted in the early 2000's and now houses a range of contemporary apartments perfectly set up for first time buyers and investors alike. Accessed via a communal entrance hall behind a secure intercom controlled front door, the building opens up to a beautiful communal atrium with both elevator and stair access to all floors. Inside the property itself, there is a dedicated entrance hallway that leads to the main lounge. With an abundance of natural light, the open-plan living area features exposed brickwork, large windows, and sleek wooden flooring. The kitchen is fitted with modern appliances, providing the perfect space for cooking and entertaining. The bedroom is well sized and is fitted with full wall to ceiling built in wardrobes providing ample storage and a spacious 4 piece family bathroom completes this wonderful city centre home. Conveniently, this property also includes a secure underground, gated car parking space. With the mainline train station being just a short walk away, this fantastic apartment offers both comfort and convenience and is a real must see.
