Property Description

A stylishly extended and beautifully appointed five bedroomed detached family house approached via a long driveway located off a highly desirable tree-lined avenue within the east Leicestershire village of Bushby.

An internal inspection is essential to appreciate the extensive and versatile accommodation, together with the secluded gardens taking advantage of this stunning backwater setting.

With the benefit of gas fired central heating and double glazed windows, the property is approached via an impressive reception hall with oak boarded flooring, with glazed double doors opening into a magnificent open plan living kitchen with high vaulted ceiling and galleried area above with two sky lights and triple bi-fold doors opening onto the gardens, creating an abundance of natural light. The kitchen is fitted to a particularly high specification with granite working surfaces and quality appliances, and there is a dining/sitting area and cast iron burner. The living kitchen is open plan to a delightful garden room with bi-fold doors leading out to a patio area. There is also a fitted utility room.

Off an inner hallway with oak boarded flooring is a useful boot room and cloakroom/wc. The lounge is of good size with a picture window overlooking the garden and feature fireplace with cast iron log burner. The study has oak fitted desk units with cupboards and drawers beneath and built-in cupboards.

Located on the ground floor is the principal bedroom of good size with three double mirror fronted wardrobes and French doors leading out to the garden, with a superbly appointed en-suite bathroom with a roll edged bath with ball & claw feet, and a walk-in shower unit.

On the upper floor off a galleried landing with oak finish doors off are four further bedrooms, the guest bedroom having an en-suite shower room, and there is also a further family shower room.

Delightful rear garden of good size enjoying a high degree of privacy with lawn and patio areas, parking to front
