This stunning Victorian home, situated on a coveted road and much sought after location, offers a bright and airy ambience with its east-west orientation, boasting ample natural light throughout the day. The spacious living room features a bay window and high ceilings, creating a perfect space for relaxation. The well-appointed kitchen breakfast room showcases top-of-the-line appliances and ample storage, while the private garden serves as a tranquil oasis for escaping the city's hustle and bustle or hosting memorable gatherings. The master bedroom with en-suite, located on a separate half landing for added privacy, is generously proportioned, while two additional bedrooms, a bathroom, and a powder room ensure comfort for the entire family. Additionally, the property offers a versatile loft space that can be extended or converted into an extra bedroom or workspace. Meticulously maintained by the current owners, upgrades include a new roof, double glazed windows, external redecoration, wood flooring throughout, and custom storage, providing a clutter-free living environment. With all these features, any new owner can enjoy the peace of mind of a move-in ready home with limited future renovations needed.
