MISREPRESENTATION ACT 1967.

Messrs Wright Marshall for themselves and for the vendors or Lessors of this property, whose agents they are, give notice that:

1. The particulars are set out as general outline only for the guidance of intending purchasers, and do not constitute, nor constitute part of, an offer or contract.
2. All descriptions and references to condition and necessary permissions for use and occupation, and other details are given in good faith and are believed to be correct but any intending purchasers or tenants should not rely on them as statements or representations of fact but must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of each of them.
3. No person in the employment of Messrs. Wright Marshall has any authority to make any representation whatever in relation to this property.

NO ONWARD CHAIN "South View" is a four-bedroom cottage dating back to 1760, originally a school house. Comprising two separate buildings, it was joined over time and converted from a post office and village shop in the early 2000s. Since then, it has been renovated to a high standard. The ground floor features a living room with a multi-fuel stove, a kitchen/dining room, utility room, shower room, an entrance porch, and hallway. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, there is a courtyard with mature plants and two off-road parking spaces nearby, along with an allotment offering stunning park views. Offering open countryside views, it is ideal as a family home or holiday let.
