Description

Upon approach to the cottages, a sweeping driveway provides a most attractive entrance on first impression. The development as a whole offers ample off road parking, generous parking arrangements, a double garage and shared amenities, including a full sized tennis court.

The property briefly comprises:- A large entrance hall with W/C and traditional parquet flooring. A welcoming kitchen and pantry, spacious lounge area with Cheshire Brick Open Fire opening onto the extensive garden. An additional reception room serves as a dining room currently, but could be used for a home office or children's play room.

First floor accommodation includes four well proportioned bedrooms. The large first bedroom includes a three piece ensuite with shower over bath. All remaining bedrooms are served by a four piece family bathroom, with velux window.

The large rear garden offers plenty of space for green fingers, hosting friends and family, or simply enjoying the beautiful views of the Cheshire countryside. Viewing is recommended to appreciate the beauty of this property.

Location

The property is located in the parish of Ridley. To access the property, turn onto Ridley Green via either Wrexham Road (A534) or Whitchurch Road (A49). The property is down a long private drive known as Ridley Hill Farm. Following this road down to a small junction, take the left towards the first cottages.
