Winscombe, Winscombe

A fantastic opportunity to purchase this incredible three bedroom detached bungalow set in a generous plot located in Sidcot. Upon entering the property you are greeted with a lovely porch area which opens into a lovely welcoming entrance hallway. This really gives the essence of space. The property offers the living accommodation to the west wing and the bedrooms to the east wing. The living area comprises of an incredibly spacious and well designed living room. This offers a bay window allowing for the rear garden aspect to be highlighted in a beautiful way. Leading from this room you can enter the separate dining room which also benefits from the rear facing view. A really good space for a large dining room table. With the potential to be opened up into the kitchen area which would create an impressive open plan kitchen/dining area. The current kitchen is a good size with ample amounts of worktop and unit space. Leading from the kitchen is a utility room which provides great space for washer/dryer. Also homing one of the WCs. Completing the living half of the property is another WC with shower.
