The Warwick is an elegant and spacious five-bedroom detached family home that boasts a stunning design with a convenient integral garage. The ground floor of this magnificent property features a generous kitchen/dining room, complete with French doors that lead out to the beautiful garden, allowing for seamless indoor-outdoor living. Additionally, there is a convenient downstairs WC, and a charming living room that overlooks the front of the house.

As you make your way up the central landing, you'll discover the five well-appointed bedrooms, including one that offers the luxury of an en-suite bathroom. The central landing serves as the heart of the home, providing easy access to all of the bedrooms and the family bathroom, making it the perfect hub for family life. The Warwick truly offers a perfect blend of style, functionality, and comfort for modern family living.
