CASTLE PLACE

Trowbridge is Wiltshire's County Town set in the heart of Wiltshire with easy access to the adjoining towns of Devizes, Marlborough, Westbury, Warminster, Frome, Bath, Bradford on Avon, Corsham and Chippenham. Junction 17 of the M4 is approximately 18 miles to the North.

The Town offers a wealth of leisure and retail facilities including Castle Place, St Stephen's Place Leisure Park, The Shires and The Gateway. Many supermarkets are represented in Trowbridge and there is plentiful opportunity for independent operators.

The town has a population of just under 45,000 people.

DESCRIPTION

Castle Place is a covered retail and leisure scheme laid out over two floors. The Upper Ground Floor has two large glazed lanterns providing excellent natural light and the Lower Ground Floor has extensive glazing along one whole elevation overlooking Castle Park.

The majority of units are accessed directly off Market Street which are known as the Upper Ground Floor. There is further access to the Lower Ground Floor from the adjacent free car park. Escalator access is provided linking the two floors and there are WC facilities on the Lower Ground Floor.

Each available unit on the Upper Ground Floor has its own storage facilities and delivery access on the Lower Ground Floor.

Some units benefit from previous occupier's fit-out and all have fully glazed frontages.

FREE CAR PARKING

Adjacent and linked to Castle Place is a 450 space free car park for the use of visitors and staff working in Castle Place (24/7). This is accessed via Castle Street and St Stephen's Place directly off the A361 County Way.

PLANNING

The Property currently benefits from Class A (retail) and Class E (commercial, business & service). This covers a wide variety of uses and interested parties are advised to liaise with the Local Planning Authority, Wiltshire Council www.wiltshire.gov.uk/planning
