DORSET & NEW FOREST ESTATE AGENTS

This delightful character cottage offers a rare opportunity to experience coastal living in the sought-after Studland village.

Set at the edge of the village and adjoining open heathland to the rear, you are set in a quiet position yet are just a short walk from the much loved sandy beaches of Studland. Various facilities are nearby including a handy village store, bus stop, The Bankes Arms public house and the highly acclaimed Pig on the Beach restaurant. The shops, restaurants, facilities and heritage railway line of Swanage town centre are also a short drive or bus trip away, as is the popular Sandbanks peninsula via the nearby chain ferry.

The spacious kitchen/dining room has an array of base and eye level units and comes complete with an electric cooker. There is also a separate generously sized living room to the front aspect of the property and the bathroom is also situated on the ground floor of the property to the rear. Stairs rise to the first floor landing where three bedrooms are found, each with stripped wood flooring and high ceilings, adding to the feeling of light and space. Character fireplace surrounds are also found to bedrooms 1 and 2, both of which are double rooms. Bedroom 3 would provide an ideal space for those looking to study or work from home.

The property further benefits from modern electric heating and UPVC double glazing. A private off road parking area is situated in front of the property and further unrestricted parking is also available nearby. A fully enclosed lawned garden is situated in front of the parking area, plus there is a further fully enclosed hardstanding yard to the rear.

The property is available to let now on a long term, unfurnished basis. Pets are considered at the landlord's discretion.
