The downstairs living space here has a lovely feel about it with large double doorways connecting the dining room, conservatory and sitting room which conjures a flowing, open plan feel to the living areas but still allows for each room to be it's own distinct space. With a contemporary kitchen with breakfast bar, separate utility room, study/playroom and downstairs washroom, this house has plenty of living space.

Upstairs there are four bedrooms; a master bedroom with ensuite, 2 further double sized bedrooms and a single bedroom as well as a family bathroom.

The garden and outlook is where this home really stands out from the crowd. The beautifully lawned rear garden, which is bordered with post and rail fencing, has a completely open aspect view of the surrounding countryside. A view that can be enjoyed all year round, either cosied in the expansive conservatory or sat on the flagstone patio or raised decking area to the bottom of the garden.

With a private drive, parking for several vehicles and a double garage this home has a lot to offer its new owners in a picturesque village location.
