Description

Welcome to Ebenezer House, an enchanting Georgian property situated in the picturesque village of Fiskerton. This exceptional residence masterfully combines the timeless elegance of its historic roots with the convenience of contemporary living, offering a unique opportunity for a family seeking a home with both period charm and functionality.

As you approach the front of Ebenezer House, the grandeur of its traditional façade, complete with an exquisite stained glass front door, sets the tone for the quality within. The traditional character of the property is preserved and enhanced throughout, with features such as original fireplaces, ceiling roses and magnificent windows that ensure every room is bathed in natural light.

The heart of this home is its open plan living area, where traditional and contemporary elements blend effortlessly. This area is ideal for the family and provides a versatile space that encourages both relaxation and entertainment. Ebenezer house boasts five bedrooms each adorned with expansive windows, 4 of which frame picturesque views of the rear garden. The garden is a true highlight of the property, thoughtfully designed to cater to a variety of activities. The garden features pockets of spaces with two separate lawned areas, perfect for climbing frames and football goals. At its centre lies a sunken sitting area, perfect for enjoying the outdoors. An outdoor bar with decking invites entertainment and socialising, while space remains for a BBQ area and outdoor dining, this beautifully landscaped garden provides a tranquil, private setting for creating memories with family and friends.

With its blend of historic charm and modern conveniences Ebenezer House offers a lifestyle enriched by its elegant design, spacious living area and inviting garden, perfect for families who are looking for a forever home.
