Property Description

Nestled within the picturesque surroundings of Afonwen, this exquisite stone-built Grade II listed cottage offers a rare blend of historic charm and modern comfort. This two bedroom property exudes character with its original features, including a charming inglenook fireplace, exposed wooden beams and quaint cottage style gardens. Boasting beautiful views of the surrounding area, this property provides the perfect backdrop for those seeking tranquility.

The accommodation briefly comprises: Welcoming Entry Porch, Versatile Dining Room/Sitting Room with patio doors opening to the garden, Character-filled Lounge boasting a stone-built inglenook fireplace, Modern Kitchen featuring a central island, Spacious Main Bedroom with En-suite, Second Bedroom and Contemporary Family Bathroom.

The property is accessed through a stone-built wall with quaint cottage-style gates, the rear garden unveils itself as a haven of natural beauty. A lush, well-established lawn forms the centerpiece, an array of colorful shrubs and bushes decorate the borders gracefully. Nestled within this peaceful space lies a stone patio area, inviting you to unwind and relax in the serenity of your surroundings. It's the perfect spot for outdoor furniture and seating. A slated area is thoughtfully designated for a log store. Nearby, a wooden shed with a pergola offers practical storage solutions while adding rustic charm to the landscape. The garden is bounded by panelled fencing, providing both privacy and a sense of enclosure to this idyllic space.

Afonwen village is nestled within the stunning scenery of the Clwydian Range, designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Nearby, the town of Caerwys provides convenient amenities including a primary school and access to a bus route connecting to neighboring towns like Holywell, Mold, and Denbigh, where a diverse range of shops, schools, and recreational facilities await. The proximity to the A55 offers easy access to major motorways.
