Property Description

Reid & Roberts are delighted to present to the market this charming, traditional red brick mid-terrace home, offering a perfect blend of character, comfort, and convenience. Whether you're a first-time buyer searching for a welcoming home or an investor looking for an excellent opportunity, this three-bedroom property provides an ideal starting point. With no onward chain, the buying process is made even smoother, allowing you to make this house your own with ease.

This delightful home boasts inviting curb appeal, off-road parking for two vehicles, and a quaint rear garden, offering both practicality and outdoor space to enjoy. Stepping inside, the property features a well-proportioned layout, blending traditional charm with everyday functionality. The entrance hallway leads into a cosy yet spacious lounge, perfect for relaxation, followed by a well-sized dining room that provides an excellent space for family meals or entertaining guests. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, providing ample storage and workspace. A rear hallway leads to the back entrance and offers access to the ground-floor bathroom, which is fitted with a three-piece suite. Upstairs, the first floor comprises three well-sized bedrooms, two of which are comfortable doubles. Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking for two vehicles, ensuring convenience for homeowners and visitors alike. The rear yard features a practical patio area, crafted from durable plastic decking, leading to a further lawned garden that offers a peaceful outdoor retreat.

Located in the well-established village of Mancot, this property offers easy access to Queensferry and Hawarden, along with a variety of local amenities. Two primary schools are within walking distance, while Hawarden Golf Club, Deeside Leisure Centre, and Broughton Retail Park provide excellent leisure and shopping options. With major transport links nearby, Chester is just 7.5 miles away, and Mold is 7 miles.
