A truly exceptional opportunity to purchase a high quality architect designed home, the home being situated within a tucked away private and tranquil setting in a semi-rural location. The property was designed and constructed in line with our clients exacting standards, this being evidenced from the initial approach, then being further reinforced as you enter what can only be described as a truly impressive individual home.

As you enter the property you are immediately greeted by a stunning galleried entrance hallway with focal point external water feature. This generous entrance hall featuring a vaulted ceiling, part turn oak staircase, slate effect feature wall and full height window with the focal point water feature beyond. The property has been designed to provide high quality living, the living space being situated away from the four ensuite bedrooms.

The living areas feature vaulted ceilings whilst also enjoying direct access via bi-folding doors to the enclosed and private decked inner terrace. The living room enjoys this direct access to the enclosed terrace and features a vaulted ceiling and a focal point wood burning stove. The dining room once more enjoys the direct access out to the enclosed terrace. This amazing space is split level from the kitchen and enjoys an open view through to the stunning high quality kitchen area. This creates a truly unique social space that lends itself to either family living or alternatively it creates a showpiece entertaining space. The high quality kitchen has once more been designed with a real eye on detail and functionality, it features high quality fitted units and working surfaces, whilst it also provides fitted appliances. The property also provides a spacious utility and boot room area, this space lending itself to rural living.

The four stunning luxury double bedrooms are set out over the two floors, both floors providing two generous double ensuite bedrooms, each of these spacious bedrooms feature high quality luxury ensuite facilities. The master bedroom suite which is located on the ground floor is a simply stunning master suite, this dual aspect full depth room enjoys direct access out to the enclosed rear sun terrace. The master suite also features a luxurious ensuite shower room and fitted wardrobes. The three further bedrooms are all generous double rooms, all of these rooms featuring high quality luxury ensuite facilities. The property also provides a ground floor study, cloakroom/w.c and a spacious galleried landing. Throughout the property there is high quality engineered oak, the ground floor benefitting from underfloor heating.

This stunning home enjoys un-interrupted open rural views over its own grounds to the surrounding countryside. Sitting in just under 1.6 acres of private enclosed grounds which afford the property a high degree of peace and privacy. As you approach the property you are greeted by a broad gated entrance, this entrance opening to an expansive gravel driveway and parking area. The driveway provides space for numerous vehicles and leads to a substantial timber stable block, this housing three stables and a generous additional garage. The property further benefits from the addition of a further three vehicle timber car port set within the grounds. Our discerning owners during the construction of the property designed the property to take advantage of the orientation and added thermal solar panels, these greatly reducing the energy costs at the property.

A truly exceptional and unique opportunity for a discerning buyer in the current market. If you are looking to purchase a truly unique, high quality individual home then this property should not be overlooked. Please contact our office to arrange your own personal viewing at this stunning property.
