Windsor Green, Cockfield

Roundwood House is a delightful detached Grade II Listed cottage, believed to date back to the 15th Century and boasts an enviable position in private grounds of about half an acre (stms). Providing accommodation over two floors with a wealth of character including inglenook fireplaces, exposed brick, timbers and beams. This home also benefits hugely from a self contained, two bedroom annexe. The property would suit a two generational family with other options being one of the homes is let privately or as a Airbnb to create an income. This thatched dwelling is situated in the village of Windsor Green, in close proximity to the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds.

This charming countryside residence with great character is superbly presented and includes a plethora of characterful features throughout the many different rooms. The property is fundamentally two homes in one. The annex has two bedrooms, a full bathroom, a sitting room with inglenook fireplace, a kitchen with dining area and garden room with access to a patio and garden. The kitchen includes fridge/freezer, washing machine and dishwasher.

Moving to the main living quarters of the cottage there is charming sitting room with exposed brickwork, timbers, and beams with a beautiful inglenook fireplace with an imposing wood burner, providing gentle warmth to the whole property. The dining room further boasts a striking inglenook. The kitchen is fully fitted with a selection of floor and wall cabinets providing ample storage. There are solid wood counter, Butler sink, a large range stove/oven, and integrated appliances which include dishwasher, fridge, and freezer.

The principle living accommodation is serviced with dual staircases. One staircase leads from the dining room to the master bedroom, bedroom two and the family bathroom. The master bedroom mains characterful with exposed timbers. The second staircase weaves it way over the inglenook fireplace and gives way to the third bedroom.
