School Road, Great Barton, Bury St.
Edmunds

A truly exceptional example of high specification, modern living. The current occupiers have sympathetically extended and renovated this home, with no expense spared. This wonderful detached home offers generous open plan living accommodation, four well proportioned bedrooms and a wrap around plot of 0.36 acres(sts).

The Oaks is located in the quaint village of Great Barton, only a short drive from Bury St.Edmunds. The grand and unique frontage sets this residence apart with the oak porch and granite stone clad. The central hub of the home is the open plan kitchen and dining/sitting room. A stone and anthracite in-frame kitchen compliments granite work surfaces and integrated appliances. Adjoining the kitchen is a large breakfast bar leading into the dining room.

Thanks to the expansive bi-folding and skylights, the dining space floods the remainder of the accommodation with natural lights. The living room provides a separate and cosy retreat with an inset log burner. The right wing of the property gives way to the games room, home office and cloakroom. The hallway has been lengthened with handy additional storage cupboards. A utility room completes the ground floor accommodation.

The spectacular master bedroom spans the length of the house and is adjoined by the high specification ensuite. A Juliette balcony is fit over the front aspect window with French doors leading out to this. The ensuite comprises; walk in shower, free standing bath, two sinks with vanity storage and low level WC. Bedroom two also benefits from a modern ensuite. Both bedrooms three and four are also double bedrooms.

The rear garden has been updated over the years to create a brilliant social space. The majority is laid to lawn with a unique Tiki Hut, bespoke outside kitchen and seating area. A portion is currently being used as astro turf football pitch. The frontage allows parking for upwards of six vehicles on a driveway with electric gates with privacy.
