5 Craigweil Manor

Craigweil, Aldwick, Bognor Regis

Adding to the allure of this remarkable property is the direct access to Aldwick Beach, a privilege bestowed upon the fortunate few who call this exclusive enclave home. Immerse yourself in the storeyed past of Craigweil, the very place where King George IV himself graced with his presence in 1929, imbuing the surroundings with a sense of regal history and prestige. Step outside and bask in the tranquillity of the meticulously landscaped communal gardens. For those with a penchant for automobiles, a garage and ample parking space provides both security and convenience.

Not only does Aldwick and Bognor Regis boast some of Britain's most magnificent Georgian and Regency buildings, it also enjoys more sunshine hours than anywhere else in the country. As well as a beautiful beach complete with traditional fishing boats and beach huts, this attractive seaside town is home to lovingly tended parks and gardens, a theatre and cinema, and a good choice of shops, restaurants, bars and cafes plus a mainline railway station with services to London Victoria and the South Coast.
