Key Features

A rare opportunity in a sought-after Kemnay location

Designed for modern families who love space, light and flow

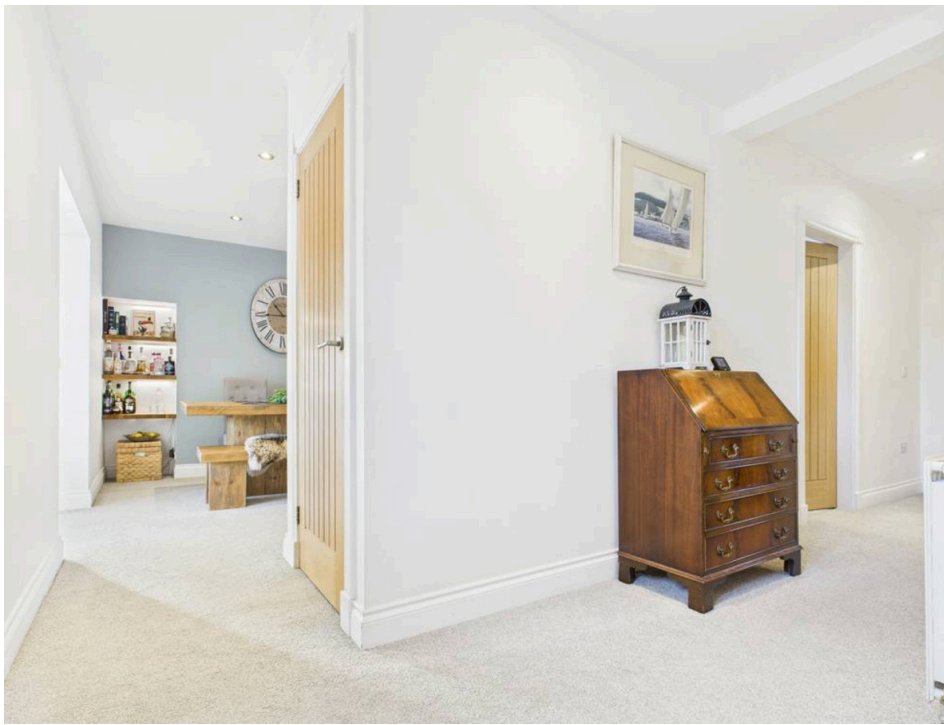

Inside/outside living at its finest — just slide the doors and breathe

Low and Partners is delighted to present you with Riverside Road, Kemnay – a beautifully revamped and stylishly modernised home where contemporary design meets warm, practical family living. The current owner has thoughtfully transformed the property throughout, creating a bright, inviting and versatile space that flows effortlessly from room to room. With three bedrooms, two bathrooms and an impressive open-plan layout, this is a home that truly caters to modern lifestyles.

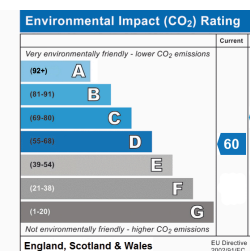

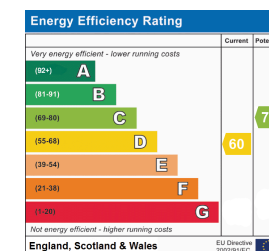

Upon entering, the vestibule offers a bright and welcoming space ideal for outerwear, with a door leading through to the main hallway. The hallway itself is wonderfully spacious, filled with natural light from the window and finished with soft carpeting, modern lighting and a radiator for comfort. From here, all ground-floor accommodation is accessed, along with the staircase leading to the upper floor.

The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan lounge and dining area, a beautifully designed space perfect for family life and entertaining. A charming bay window floods the room with light, while the wood-burning stove creates a cosy focal point. The décor is modern and stylish, complemented by quality carpeting,
