➡ IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your main studio space comes in at a substantial 380 square foot, with smoky engineered hardwood flooring running underfoot throughout, and timber accents on the smooth white walls marking out sleeping and study spaces. Your kitchen area's smartly decked out in charcoal grey cabinets, with slim marbled worktops and timber style splashbacks. A full suite of integrated appliances completes things in understated style.

Natural light floods in from floor to ceiling windows and patio doors leading out to your private terrace. Out here you have a generous 140 square feet of nicely secluded outdoor space. Back inside and cross the main studio for your generous entrance hall, plenty of incidental space here, for bags, coats and extra storage. Your smart designer bathroom is an enviable boutique affair, with oversized dark marbled tilework running from tub to ceiling, a smoky grey colour palette and rainfall shower over the tub.

Outside and, as noted, London Fields overground is just a couple of minutes' walk from your new front door for direct nine minute runs to Liverpool Street, making for a door to door City commute of less than quarter of an hour. Just past the station you have London Fields itself, without question one of Hackney's premier outdoor spots. Whether you want to take a dip at the heated Lido, explore the sports facilities and fitness clubs or just take a morning run, it's a splendid spot to have on your doorstep.
