PROPERTY OVERVIEW

On the ground floor the property offers an inviting approach with off-street parking and beautifully landscaped front garden, a porcelain tile pathway takes you to the entrance with porch and front door with original stained-glass windows. The welcoming and light hallway gives access to generous lounge with large bay window, fireplace and newly fitted bespoke cupboard and shelves.

The kitchen/dining room is the true centre piece of this fantastic home offering a modern and functional family space, centred around a well designed kitchen benefitting from a 5 ring ceramic induction hob, island with sink and breakfast bar, integrated dishwasher, fridge and freezer, separate utility room with door to patio, downstairs cloakroom and triple bi-folding doors opening onto the garden patio area which has also been laid to ceramic tiles.

The first floor has three large bedrooms, the front benefitting from a bay window. There are two further well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom. The second floor is configured as a large double bedroom, plus another double room.

To the rear, the house has a patio leading straight from the rear extension with steps up to a mature garden with rear access and garage.

Location

Nestled between Redland, Bishopston, Westbury Park and Henleaze, the property is within walking distance to a host of amenities including a cinema, library, doctors, dentists, vets and Waitrose as well as numerous restaurants and the green open space of Durdham Downs.

The property is being sold by a connected person to Goodchild Estate Agents.
