PROPERTY OVERVIEW

The brand new 'Station House' is a stunning individually designed detached family house finished to an exemplary standard, just moments from green open spaces, motorway links and the city.

A magnificent newly built house, finished to an outstanding standard in a secure and generous plot and is approached by double electric gates. The property offers a fantastic interior with wonderful features including a beautiful reception hall with an oak and glass central staircase. Off the hall is the outstanding family/kitchen/dining area which forms the heart of this home.

A contemporary kitchen features an eye level cluster of appliances: double oven, wine cooler, microwave oven, dishwasher and washer/dryer. Twin aluminium bi-fold patio doors bring the outside in which in turn fills the room with natural light. A spectacular space perfect for entertaining and relaxing in. Also off the hall is a sitting room with bi-fold doors to the garden and a downstairs cloakroom. The first floor offers 4 bedrooms, the master and bedroom two both with stylish en-suite facilities plus a further contemporary family bathroom.

Exterior

This brand-new home is approached via double electric gates with a brick paved drive enclosed by a stunning stone wall, parts of which would have been the last remaining walls of the original manor house. A comprehensive landscaping scheme includes a large lawn, planted borders, an electric car charging point and car parking spaces for multiple cars. In addition, there is a large, detached garage with electric door.

Heating System – Mitsubishi air source with smart controls. Underfloor heating throughout the property.

Warranty – Architects Professional Warranty
