EMBRACE NATURE- INSPIRED LUXURY LIVING

This secure development offers more than just luxury living - it's a sanctuary where every detail has been meticulously curated to elevate your lifestyle. Discover a new standard of sophistication amidst the tranquillity of leafy Middleton.

Nature takes centre stage with innovative features such as a living wall, promoting biodiversity and fostering a connection with mature gardens that envelop the development. A green roof carport further enhances biodiversity, while discreetly concealing parking areas within the natural contours of the site.

DISCOVER THE CHARM OF MIDDLETON, ILKLEY

MIDDLETON AREA

The conservation area provides a high-quality setting with large houses, wide roads, generous landscaped gardens, mature trees and hedgerows that create a spacious, leafy and prestigious suburban character.

Middleton is predominantly residential, and benefits from large areas of open space, sports and recreational facilities along the banks of the River Wharfe, just a few minutes walk from Robin Hill.

Robin Hill is just a 15-minute walk into the town centre of Ilkley.

FOOD AND DRINK

Ilkley is a culinary haven, offering a delightful array of food and drink experiences to suit every palate. From the award-winning Box Tree restaurant, where culinary legend Marco Pierre White honed his skills, to the iconic Betty's Tearoom, known for its exquisite cakes and traditional afternoon tea, the town is a food lover's paradise.

High street favourites sit alongside boutique eateries, while traditional pubs and stylish wine bars provide the perfect setting for a relaxed evening out. Whether you're seeking a gourmet dining experience, a casual bite, or the finest local ingredients, Ilkley's vibrant food and drink scene is sure to satisfy.

SHOPS

Ilkley offers a sophisticated shopping experience, blending the charm of high street convenience with the allure of boutique individuality.

The town centre is lined with an array of independent shops, offering everything from bespoke fashion and unique homewares to artisan crafts and local delicacies. High street staples sit comfortably alongside specialty stores, ensuring residents have access to both everyday essentials and luxurious indulgences.

Notably, Ilkley is home to the award-winning Lishman's butcher and an array of premium food shops, ensuring you have access to the finest local produce.

THINGS TO DO

Ilkley offers an abundance of activities to suit all interests, making it an ideal location for those who enjoy an active and culturally rich lifestyle.

The town is home to the beautiful Edwardian King's Hall and Winter Garden, where you can enjoy a variety of performances, from plays and concerts to comedy nights and the popular annual beer festival.

For outdoor enthusiasts, Ilkley Moor and the surrounding Yorkshire Dales National Park provide stunning landscapes perfect for hiking, cycling, and nature walks. Sports lovers will appreciate the town's excellent facilities, including the Ilkley Lawn Tennis and Squash Club, Ilkley Golf Club, and Ilkley Rugby Club. Families can enjoy the historic 1930s lido, one of the country's few remaining outdoor pools, offering a unique and picturesque spot to swim and relax.

With its blend of cultural, recreational, and natural attractions, Ilkley ensures that there is always something to see and do.
