THE PROPERTY MISDESCRIPTIONS ACT 1991 Langhams Estate Agents has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for the purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor or Surveyor, and it is in the buyers interest to check the working condition of any appliances. References to the Tenure of a Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. Langhams Estate Agents has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor. You are advised to check the availability of this property before travelling any distance to view. We have taken every precaution to ensure that these details are accurate and not misleading. If there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact us and we will provide any information you require. This is advisable, particularly if you intend to travel some distance to view the property. The mention of any appliances and services within these details does not imply that they are in full and efficient working order. These particulars are in draft form awaiting Vendors confirmation of their accuracy. These details must therefore be taken as a guide only and do not constitute part or all of an offer or contract. Any measurements indicated are supplied for guidance only and as such must be considered incorrect. Potential buyers are advised to recheck measurements before committing to any expense. No employee or partner of Langhams Estate Agents has authority to make or give any representation or warranty in relation to the property.
