Agents Notes

Planning was granted in 2014 for a loft conversion and a first floor extension over the existing living room study and hall to create a new master bedroom suite. The loft has been finished but the first floor extension was not started. Because building works were started the pp remains 'live'. S/6/2014/1086/FP Welwyn & Hatfield. Another great feature is a large private space to side, ideal for parking either a motor home or boat.
