The Property

This spacious and well-presented detached home is located on a sought-after road just moments from Rottingdean High Street and the beach. Each room is a good size and the property offers flexible accommodation for a family.

An entrance porch provides fantastic space for shoes and coats and leads into a spacious entrance hall. To the right is a bright dual aspect living/dining room which has fantastic sea views from its double-glazed bay window at the front. Wooden floors lead through an arch that separates the sitting room from the dining room. Here, there’s space for a table to fit all the family and sliding doors lead out to the rear garden.

To the left of the hallway is a second reception room, which could also be used as a home study, or an additional bedroom. Full of character, this room has another bay window with spectacular views, an original Victorian-style fireplace with a marble hearth, and picture and dado rails.

At the rear of the house is a spacious recently renovated kitchen with an outlook over the garden. With grey shaker-style units, a solid granite work surface, and integrated appliances it has everything one might need. A door leads through to a conservatory, which adds to the overall living space this home offers. Off the conservatory is another bedroom.

The first floor comprises three bedrooms and two en-suite bathrooms. At the front of the house, the middle bedroom boasts a full-height window that perfectly frames a view of Rottingdean Windmill. There are also two built-in wardrobes offering ample storage space. The bedroom to the left has an en-suite bathroom and further views out to sea. The bedroom to the right has been modernised and features a sleek en-suite shower room.

Outside, the house boasts a newly installed and resin driveway, offering off-road parking for several cars. A standout feature of the property is the rear garden. It includes an easy-to-maintain lawn, and two spacious decked areas suitable for garden furniture, with the rear deck enjoying sunlight until the end of the day. The garden is very private, enclosed by walls and a fence, and includes a practical garden shed.

This property is Freehold and the council tax band is E.

What We Think

"This spacious family home is a Tardis and seems to go on and on. There's enough bedrooms for a large family, and living space isn't compromised as a result."
