The property

Once a nursery school called Milbourne House, this detached house has more recently been a beloved family home. It stands proudly on a spacious corner plot at the bottom of Bazehill Road, in the heart of Rottingdean. As you approach it, you're met with an idyllic carriage driveway and pretty brick and mock-Tudor frontage. You enter through a porch into a welcoming entrance hallway which leads you through to the main accommodation on the ground floor. In the hallway there's also a handy under-stairs storage cupboard and downstairs WC.

The living room is bright and spacious, with a bay window overlooking the neat lawn and shrubs at the front of the property, and has a stone feature fireplace with a coal effect gas fire. Double doors lead to a conservatory - a peaceful place to relax and enjoy the back garden views.

The spacious kitchen/breakfast room is located at the back of the house. Beige shaker-style cupboards provide ample storage space and soft yellow-panelled walls complement the rustic effect ocre wall tiles. Though country chic in style, the kitchen has all the modern appliances you could need including a split-level electric oven/microwave, gas hob, integrated dishwasher, freezer, and separate fridge/freezer. A door leads to a back porch and separate utility area with a door to the back garden.

A separate dining room, with a serving hatch to the kitchen, is also on the ground floor. This room offers flexibility and could be used in a myriad of ways - as a reception room, or additional bedroom.

Through the dining room is a versatile extension that could be transformed into a self-contained annexe with its own front entrance. Currently it has a kitchenette, shower room and bedroom and is the perfect space for a teenager or family member to tuck themselves away. A door leads to the carpeted and heated garage, currently used for storage and houses the recently replaced boiler that supplies the annexe. The hallway, dining room and annexe are fitted with quality engineered wood flooring.

Upstairs are four double bedrooms, one of which is currently being used as a study, and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom, which has views of the iconic Rottingdean Windmill, has fitted wardrobes and a recently remodelled ensuite shower room with a storage/walk-in wardrobe. The second largest bedroom has wall-to-wall fitted wardrobes and an ensuite shower room. The family bathroom is designed with blue and grey tiles and has a bath with a shower over, a vanity sink and an airing cupboard. On the landing, a loft hatch with a ladder provides access to the boarded and insulated loft space and large, recently-repositioned water tank.

This property is impressive not only for its spacious interior but also for its outdoor space. The rear and side gardens are mainly laid to lawn and there's an impressive sycamore tree, hedge and flower and shrub borders providing privacy and a pretty outlook. There are two storage sheds and space for an outdoor table and chairs and BBQ.
