Description

Commodity Quay is a former warehouse building that was comprehensively refurbished by renowned architects Buckley Gray Yeoman in 2014. Located directly on the quay, this waterside setting allows occupiers to maximise their work/life balance.

The St Katharine Docks Estate benefits from a vibrant collection of shops, bars and restaurants, including Natural Kitchen, Mala, the award winning White Mulberries.

Location

Commodity Quay forms part of the St. Katharine Docks Estate, Central London's only marina, located adjacent to Tower Bridge. In addition to Tower Hill and Tower Gateway (with direct access to all main terminals: Waterloo, King's Cross & London Bridge via Circle and District lines), a number of other transport connections are within a short walk: Fenchurch Street, Aldgate, Monument and London Bridge.
