Nestled in the charming Caen Gardens of Braunton, this delightful detached bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Boasting a spacious reception room, three bedrooms, and two modern bathrooms, this property is ideal for growing families.

Built in the 1960s, this home exudes character and warmth, with a beautiful rear garden and patio area where you can unwind and enjoy the tranquillity of the surroundings. The ample parking space for three vehicles, including a single car garage, ensures that parking will never be an issue for you or your guests.

This property has been meticulously maintained and is finished to a high standard, requiring little to no work, allowing you to simply move in and start enjoying your new home. With double glazed windows and gas central heating throughout, you can stay cosy during the colder months while keeping energy costs down.

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac yet close to the centre of the village, this bungalow offers the best of both worlds - a peaceful setting with easy access to local amenities. Don't miss the opportunity to make this charming property your own.

Braunton is well known for its passionate community spirit and is rumoured to be the largest village in England with the famous stretch of Sands, Braunton Burrows. The hustling village offers an abundance of activities and eateries, all locally run. For a change of scenery Exmoor National Park offers breath-taking rolling countryside, perfect for avid walkers.

North Devon has a wealth of simply stunning golden sand beaches and has long been a mecca for British surfers. The area has recently been declared a 'world surfing reserve', one of just 12 places on the planet along with the Australia's Golden Coast and Malibu in California.
