This two bedroom property is situated in a development for residents over 55, right in the heart of the village. The property offers peace and tranquillity, enhanced by the communal gardens surrounding it. Additionally, the property features its own low maintenance rear garden accessible from the spacious living room. The stylish kitchen offers ample space for white goods and a built in full length fridge-freezer. Other benefits includes double glazed windows and a thermostatically controlled heating system that helps reduce energy bills.

Braunton is well known for it's passionate community spirit and is rumoured to be the largest village in England with the famous stretch of Braunton Burrows. The hustling village offers an abundance of activities and eateries, most locally run.

North Devon has a wealth of simply stunning golden sand beaches and has long been a mecca for British surfers. The area has recently been declared a 'world surfing reserve', one of just 12 places on the planet along with the Australia's Golden Coast and Malibu in California. For a change of scenery Exmoor National Park offers breath taking rolling countryside, perfect for avid walkers.
