122 SOUTH VIEW

DESCRIPTION

Welcome to this fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or young families, situated on the quiet and well-regarded South View in the village of Broughton.

From the entrance hallway, you're welcomed into a generously sized front-facing living room, ideal for relaxing and entertaining. Beyond this lies a stunning open-plan living area, incorporating a snug, dining space, and a beautifully designed kitchen. Vaulted ceilings with Velux-style roof windows flood the space with natural light, while French doors from the rear utility area open directly onto the garden—creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow. A downstairs WC completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms served by an exceptionally spacious family bathroom, complete with an oversized tub and clever built-in storage. The loft has been converted to create a third double bedroom, offering additional storage space built into the eaves.

Outside, the garden really shines. From the French doors, step onto a decked seating area, perfect for summer evenings. The garden continues with a large lawn, bordered by mature laurel hedging for privacy. There is also off-street parking for multiple vehicles, and a timber garage,

This is a brilliantly spacious home that offers superb value for money, with versatile living areas and a stylish, family-friendly layout in a lovely village setting.
