From its fantastic location in the village of Roxton, The Grange offers the best of modern luxury, city convenience and rural charm. This desirable collection of homes is surrounded by beautiful Bedfordshire countryside, yet remains within close proximity to Bedford town centre and direct links to London.

Lined with trees and featuring valuable open spaces, The Grange perfectly complements its lush green surroundings. With the addition of a purpose-built children's play area and walking trail, the result is a community that values a better quality of life.

Attractive exteriors blend seamlessly with the existing local vernacular, enjoying traditional brick or render finishes that you will be proud to

The versatile interiors are spacious and elegant while remaining practical, functional and most importantly, comfortable, for complete contentment in everyday life. Each provides the perfect combination of style, efficiency and durability long into the future.

Whether you're a working professional looking for a rural sanctuary, a growing family in need of extra space or a downsizer looking for something more modern and manageable, The Grange makes the perfect place to call home.

Community at its Heart

Characterised by pretty thatches, period architecture and neatly trimmed hedges, Roxton is a quintessential English village. Set around the tower of St Mary Magdalene Church and surrounded by beautiful open countryside, this friendly rural community makes the perfect place to call home.

The village hall acts as an important community hub, with regular clubs and activities taking place, including yoga, dancing and the annual flower show.

Additionally, the village playing field is a great opportunity to get involved with the local cricket club, whether playing or spectating.

Alternatively, adjacent Roxton Park provides a wonderful open space for the whole family to enjoy.

The surrounding countryside offers plenty of opportunity to get away from it all. There are a number of footpaths nearby, most notably along the bank of the River Great Ouse, which plays home to an abundance of local wildlife.
