A 4-bedroom family home, beautifully appointed, including a garage, driveway and mature gardens.

Mason House is an attractive double-fronted house, which provides impressive versatile family accommodation of over 1900sq.ft which includes:

Front door to a spacious entrance hall with a staircase, under-stairs storage and a cloakroom. The spacious formal sitting room features a dual aspect and custombuilt cabinetry with ample storage. French doors open directly to the garden. Reception room 2 also enjoys a dual aspect and is currently used as a playroom by the current owners but could quite easily be a dining room. The thoughtfully designed kitchen/breakfast room features contemporary cabinetry and integrated appliances, including a dishwasher, double gas hob and electric fan oven. With ample space for a large fridge/freezer and doors opening to the garden, this is a practical family space. There is also a utility room with matching base units with shelving above and an integrated washing machine.

On the first floor, the landing offers plenty of storage cupboards. There are four double bedrooms, two of which have en-suite shower rooms with the master enjoying fitted his- and hers-wardrobes. There is a lovely family bathroom with a bath and shower over, WC and basin. All bathrooms have heated towel rails.

Outside, the driveway leads to a single garage at the rear, complete with an up-and-over door, power, and lighting. Gated side access opens to a large, enclosed south-facing garden. The well-stocked herbaceous borders feature a thoughtful selection of plants including verbena, wisteria, foxgloves, forget-me-nots, and climbing roses. There is a large wrap-around patio creating the perfect space for entertaining.
