The Heart of Modern Living

To the left lies the heart of the home, a beautifully upgraded living room with freshly plastered walls, soft grey tones, plush carpet, and a feature fireplace. Spotlights and a front window fill the space with natural light, while a clever extension with Velux windows, floor-to-ceiling glazing, and bifold doors opens to the landscaped garden.

A separate study area and dual full-height radiators complete this versatile space.

Kitchen & Dining

To the right of the hallway is a modern kitchen and dining area with generous granite-effect worktops, sleek J-style units, and integrated appliances.

A window overlooking the garden fills the space with light, while the dining area—separated by a downstairs WC—offers room for an American-style fridge-freezer and a full dining set, illuminated by a triple window and large radiator.

Designed for Every Occasion

Continuing through the kitchen/dining space, you'll find a separate utility section with a sink that also leads to the landscaped garden, the home office, and an outside summerhouse area with electricity. The home office is a tranquil retreat with its own electricity supply, heater, and window blinds, ensuring privacy and focus. The garden also features a separate side access gate to a side patio with a shed and log store.

Elegance on Every Floor

Upstairs, a spacious hallway leads to a luxurious family bathroom with a walk-in shower, built-in bathtub, and sleek fixtures. The principal bedroom offers built-in wardrobes, space for a king bed, a floor-to-ceiling radiator, and window shutters. Its ensuite features a monsoon-style shower, generous vanity, concealed cistern WC, and heated towel rail.
