

North Audley Street, Mayfair

Price £7,500 pw

Formerly the vicarage, this attractive Netherlandish, gabled building was designed by Sir Arthur Blomfield in 1887. North Audley Street is an exclusive area of Mayfair, close to Grosvenor Square and Selfridges department store. The home is accessed via its own entry and set over two floors, on the ground floor you have an opulent open plan kitchen and living room leading to a conservatory overlooking the garden. Upstairs on the first floor there is a 30ft drawing room with 3 meter ceiling height complete with a balcony overlooking Green Street, a master bedroom with a separate walk in wardrobe and ensuite bathroom, then two further bedrooms, one double with ensuite and one twin.

The Area

Mayfair is a highly exclusive part of central London, the Urban Retreat Apartments boast having some of the finest short stay apartments in the area. Neatly bordered by Hyde Park to the west, Oxford Street to the north, Piccadilly and Green Park to the south and Regent Street to the east.

This exclusive street in Mayfair, W1 is tucked behind the bustle of Oxford Street just a few minutes' walk from Bond Street Tube station, Selfridges and with Hyde Park in view, so it remains peaceful and calm. Some of London's best restaurants are on your doorstep, and we are happy to recommend places for you to eat, drink and socialise.
