

oakhear

£700,000

Guide Price

Field Mews, Great Bromley

Nestled in the sought-after village of Great Bromley, this brand-new, detached family home offers an idyllic retreat within a private mews of just ten exclusive properties, backing directly onto verdant farmland.

6 Field Mews seamlessly blends modern luxury with countryside charm and boasts an oak-framed double cart lodge. This spacious family home offers 2200 sqft of meticulously designed living space, the heart of which is a stunning 42ft open-plan kitchen/dining/family room, perfect for both entertaining and everyday living. Bi-fold doors effortlessly connect the indoors with the enclosed rear garden. The ground floor also includes further snug/living area, a cloakroom, utility room, and home office/playroom, offering flexible living space.

The first floor provides four double bedrooms, including two en-suite shower rooms featuring wall-hung toilets and vanity units, and a separate family bathroom with storage cupboards.

High-end specifications include Neff appliances, electric air source heat pumps, underfloor heating on the ground floor (radiators to the first floor), solar panels, and EV charging points.

Located close to local amenities, popular primary schooling, and with easy access to the A120 for Colchester and London-bound routes, as well as rail links to London Liverpool Street from nearby Great Bentley and Alresford, this property offers an unparalleled opportunity to embrace contemporary living in a desirable rural setting.

