This light and well laid out one bedroom apartment is located on the first floor of a relatively modern purpose built block.

The block itself is located in a quiet residential road, yet close to a variety of schools , shops and other local amenities.

The interior accommodation is offered in good condition and includes a fully fitted kitchen and modern bathroom.

The property also benefits from a variety of off street parking, a long lease and recently renovated communal areas.

Offered with vacant possession or with the current tenant remaining in situ , this would make an attractive rental investment , considering the low outgoings, or an ideal first time purchase.
