No Onward Chain! This exceptional four-bedroom, two-bathroom detached family home is nestled in a highly desirable development in Rowtown. With the added benefit of its own private driveway and being offered to the market with no onward chain, this property promises a seamless and stress-free move.

Upon entering, you'll be welcomed by a spacious reception lounge that flows effortlessly into the garden through stylish doors, offering a perfect indoor-outdoor living experience. The home boasts two reception rooms, with the front-facing room exuding elegance, featuring pristine white shutters and chic pendant lighting. The large kitchen is a chef's dream, showcasing natural-toned floor tiles, sleek white eye- and base-level units, a striking splashback, and luxurious granite countertops. A side door offers convenient access to the outside, while the separate utility room, complete with a sink, hanging rail, and ample shelving, adds both practicality and style.

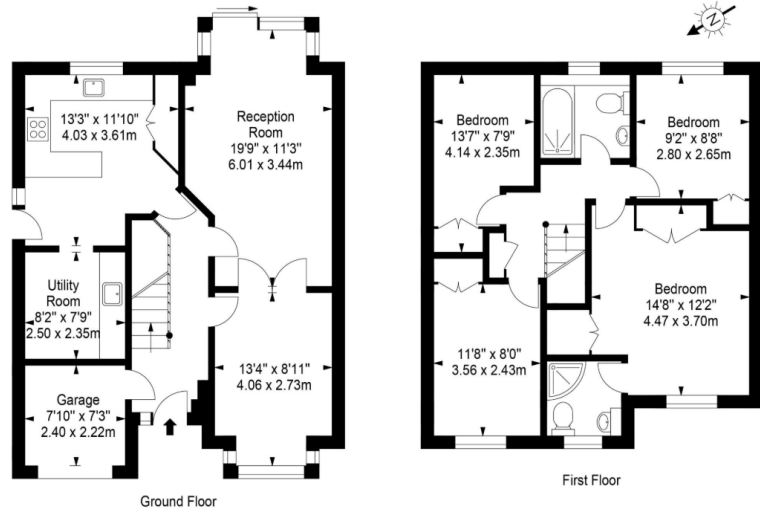

Upstairs, the property offers four generously proportioned bedrooms, each tastefully decorated and featuring built-in storage. The master suite, located at the front of the house, is particularly captivating and includes an en-suite shower room, providing a private sanctuary for relaxation.

Outside, the garden is a serene oasis, beautifully landscaped with lush lawns and mature planting. A side gate provides easy access, and the spacious patio area is ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining guests in the warmer months.

Perfectly positioned, this home is just moments away from local shops and schools, with quick and easy access to Addlestone, Woking, and the M25, ensuring excellent transport links and convenience for family living at its best.
